THE PASADENA SISTER CITY COMMITTEE

The PSCC is an official committee of Pasadena. Most of the organization's programs are financed through fundraising efforts of the membership. Such funds are used to host visiting delegations, arrange cultural exchanges, and most significantly, benefit student exchange programs. The volunteer members have helped a set a pace for the future by globally linking Pasadena with lasting friendships with our sister cities. This cross-cultural linking enriches each city with social, cultural, and economic benefits.

PSCC Membership Benefits

- Personalized beautiful emblem badge
- Speaker Series
- Work on the committee of your choice

President Dwight D. Eisenhower founded the Sister Cities program in 1956 to achieve international peace through a people-to-people concept of twinning U.S. cities with foreign communities all over the globe. His hope was that through goodwill, understanding, and helping other cultures we would ensure a world of peace.
